

Why HLTA? Top benefits for schools

- /// The effective use of HLTAs helps enable teachers to teach and learners to learn
- /// Provides support staff with confidence, capability and credibility to carry out advanced roles in teaching and learning
- /// Research shows well trained and well deployed support staff do make a difference
- /// Recognised by Ofsted as a valuable school resource when deployed effectively
- /// Motivates staff to continually improve and support the development of others
- /// Enables schools to make use of an HLTA's area of expertise
- /// Strong relationships exist between HLTAs and children/pupils/students
- /// HLTAs can take lead roles in managing and supporting other staff
- /// Provides opportunities for focussed personalised provision
- /// HLTAs have a positive impact on wave 1,2 and 3 provision
- /// Provides staff and parents with confidence for effective PPA cover
- /// Provides opportunities for focussed personalised provision
- /// Standards can provide framework for performance management
- /// Response to Ofsted's increasing scrutiny of support staff in the classroom

Visit the HLTA National Partnership website, <http://hlta.org.uk>, for more reasons and to learn more about gaining HLTA Status

